Award winning jazz pianist and composer Marius Van Den Brink's album 'New York Knock' features a supergroup of jazz musicians consisting of Sean Jones, Stacy Dillard, Matt Penman, Willie Jones III, and Keita Ogawa. In addition, several special guests like Maurice Brown and Ara Dinkjian make appearances throughout the album

The album "New York Knock" will be released on January 14th '24 and solely contains Marius' authentic compositions, which have gained recognition from numerous esteemed jazz musicians. Renowned trumpet player and composer Sean Jones, compares Marius' writing to that of a contemporary Horace Silver. This is no small feat, given that Silver is one of the most influential jazz pianists and composers of the 20th century.

New York Knock is primarily a jazz album, yet it displays Marius' fascination with various music genres. The album title track and it's first to be released single 'New York Knock' tells the compelling story of Marius' experience of moving to New York City after being born and raised in a tiny village in the northern part of the Netherlands. 'Knock' serves as a synonym for 'wake up call', symbolizing Marius' realization of the vibrant music culture in New York and how that has changed him and his playing. 'It is also a reminder to myself to keep going out, meet new musicians, play together and to listen to music.

The Album release accompanied by the album release concert takes place on January 14th '24 at Dizzy's Club, Jazz at Lincoln Center at 5pm. Marius will be featured on New York TV station, PIX 11 in the program 'New York Living' on January 12th '24. He will be interviewed about the upcoming album and the release show.
